Today's Market Reports*THE FUNERAL MARCH
STILL RULES IN
WALL STREET*Transactions in First Hour
Barely Exceeded 30,000
Shares with Slow Sagging
Prevailing.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald)
New York, March 27.—The slow-sagging movement of the last few days continued during the morning. Transactions in the first hour barely exceeded 30,000 shares. The fluctuations in only a few cases escaped fractional points.

Bonds sought to make capital from reports of backward business conditions and extensive retrenchment by railroads. The market was very quiet and the list, although the trend was downward. By noon the leaders were fractionally under the opening figures. Bonds were steady.

Losses were extended all around owing to the acute weakness of several stocks. Lehigh Valley and Sugar dealers were particularly active. The publication of more favorable railroad reports, including those of Union Pacific, Northwestern and Illinois Central, influenced the shaking out of slimy margined long stocks.

Prices gravitated further downward in the late afternoon. The market closed heavy. Bantam selling was active, and stocks were held to the final hour, with some increase of pressure toward the end on Reading and Southern Pacific. Lehigh Valley met with some support but its recovery failed to check the downward trend of the balance of the list.

Trading prices on the more important stocks were:

Anaconda, 5%.

Sugar, 2%.

Atchison, 20%.

Reading, 15%.

Southern Pacific, 9%.

Union Pacific, 15%.

Steel, 62%.

Steel preferred, 10%.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISION MARKET

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald)
Chicago, March 27.—Scantiness of moisture is beyond the Missouri river giving firmness today into the price of wheat. Prices opened the same as last night to 1-1/2 higher and gradually rose to a moderate extent.

The close was firm, 1/2 off to a sixteenth up compared with last night.

Trade in corn was active, though mainly in small lots. The market at the close varied from 1-1/2 to 1-1/2 off to a shade advance but afterwards made an upturn all around.

The close was steady at 1/2 to 1-1/2 off higher.

Cats showed a disposition to follow corn, unchanged in price, however, with only slight activity.

In provisions the influence of general receipts of hogs was overcome by the strength of grain. The market after an easy start became firm.

Closing prices:

Wheat—May, 92 1/4c; July, 89c.

Corn—68 1/2c.

Oats—May, 22 1/4c; July, 19c.

Pork—May, 20 1/2c; July, 22 1/2c.

Lard—22 1/2c; July, 20 1/2c.

Rib—May, 11 1/2c; July, 11 1/2c.

WOOL MARKET STILL HOLDS STRENGTH
OF LAST WEEK*Small Volume of Business Due to Limited Supplies but Prices Firmly Maintained.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald)
Boston, March 27.—The Commercial Bulletin will say of the wool market:

"While the volume of business has not been large, prices have been firmly maintained during the week and, if anything, are slightly higher."

"Supplies of domestic wool are extremely limited. Supplies of foreign wool have been principally from surpluses and medium to fine quality."

Advices from abroad indicate a firm market everywhere with prices against the buyer. Further advances on staple stocks are reported in the New York dry goods market and prices on tape and yarns are strengthening.
